

LISTEN UP!

VOLUME XXIX, Number 4

April 2016

Commandant: Don H. Gee

Editor: Jim Powell, DC

OUR NEXT MEETING WILL BE ON APRIL 13TH AT 1930

COMMANDANT'S COLUMN

Marines,

This is my final column as Central Bucks Detachment Commandant. So, I take this opportunity to thank each of you for your support during the past year and ask that you show true Marine support for Commandant-elect Bill McBride and his staff during the coming year.

I particularly want to express my sincere appreciation to Senior Vice Commandant Budd Pearce for all he does for the Detachment, Junior Vice Commandant Bill McBride for his "gung ho" attitude in all he does for the Detachment, Paymaster (and Department Commandant) Jim Powell for his counsel and expert handling of our finances, Judge Advocate Tom Spoltore for his service and consistent support of Detachment programs, Chaplain Sam DiValentino for his outstanding dedication to his post, and Sergeant-at-Arms Bob Sundling for his exemplary service to the Detachment for more years than either of us want to think about.

Please plan to attend the April Meeting to see your new officers formally installed and congratulate them on assuming their new posts. A list of the new officers is contained in the Minutes of the March Meeting.

Unfortunately, as I step down from office, I leave the new Commandant with the problems of dwindling chapter meeting attendance and extremely slow growth in membership. I would challenge each of us to seek new members for our Detachment and attend our meetings to both participate in decision-making and enjoy the camaraderie that comes from having shared the Marine Corps experience.

In parting, I wish you each "fair winds and calm seas."

Semper Fidelis,

Don H. Gee

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

BY CHAPLAIN SAM DIVALENTINO

I stopped into the hospital last week to see a person that I have served for the last several years. He was a proud and valiant person who would put his heart and soul into everything that was important for the good of all who served him.

He told me this about his condition, "Sam I am on life support! I used to be vibrant, I used to have energy, I used to get a lot accomplished. Now I am not able to do all I would like anymore. I have been hit with men joining and dropping out, with men fighting about who does more than the other, about men talking about other men when that man is not present to defend himself. Me and my organization have been at odds for awhile now and I need some advice on how to get out of this sickbed and back to my former self."

He also told me that it would be a good idea to try to get some new people to join him in his endeavor. He told me he has a few good younger guys, but not enough to make up for the lack of youth in his organization.

I suggested that it could be good for all his men to get together and talk out some of the things on their minds. Maybe clear the air, find common ground and move forward. He liked that idea but was cautious because some of the guys may have some personal grudges to bring out in the open.

We said a prayer together, I gave him a salute, then I said goodbye and left Detachment 636 of the Marine Corps League to rest and heal. Hopefully he will find some peace soon, or go to his final resting place. He is in our hands Marines. Semper Fi!
