From: Commandant, Marine Corps League Central Bucks Detachment
To: Members, Central Bucks Marine Corps League Detachment

The regular meeting of the marine corps league was held January 11, 1989 at the Amber Inn, Doylestown. There were fourteen members present and two guests, Jim Landwehr and Sgt. David Reisinger. All officers were present. The minutes were read and accepted as read with one motion to get the newsletter out one week after regular meetings. The paymasters report was read and accepted as read. 47 tickets have been sold for the bus trip to Atlantic City. The Washington D.C. trip has been changed to a tour of Quantico with a visit to the concert at the Marine Corps Barracks at Eighth and I on Friday night. Mike Waldron will contact the commanding officer to arrange the visit. The cost will run Fifty-Five dollars per room with no extra cost for four people in a room. (for one night). Mike Waldron will be showing a video tape of Marine Corps Boot Camp at the next regular League meeting (Feb 8, 1989).

We have recieved no reply from letters sent concerning Young Marines. Any decisions will be held off until the February meeting. Cpl Deitch and Sgt Herbst will get together in the interim and make a decision as to what they want to do with the program.

It has been decided to hold off until March on ordering League jackets. Ray Kraut is currently updating a members list to include wives names and telephone numbers. If there are any changes or additions please contact a league officer.

Mike Waldron recieved a notice that the Marine Band concert will be held every sunday night over the summer and that the Cherry Blossom Festival in April. In a message from State Commandant Paul Seton the new membership goal is 4,000 members in Pennsylvania. Route 15 has been redesignated Marine Corps League Highway (Pa. Rt. 15) It is currently awaiting the Governors signature.

The division meeting will be held in Bethlehem, Pa. April 22, 1989. No response on the license plate.
