Thousands More Now Eligible for NATO Medal

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization Training Mission in Iraq has been added to a growing list of activities that qualify Marines and other U.S. service members for the award of the NATO Medal.

The NATO Training Implementation Mission and the follow-on NATO Mission Training-Iraq are the latest among eight operations that qualify U.S. service members for the international service medal, under a policy change approved by the Defense Department and announced last month.

While U.S. forces continue to earn the medal for service in the Balkans, the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq have qualified, and will continue to qualify, thousands of Marines, soldiers, sailors and airmen for the service medal.

While a precise medal count from NATO was not available at press time, information from U.S. Central Command indicates that of the 35,000 U.S. troops deployed to Afghanistan, 18,000 are assigned to the International Security Force-Afghanistan, a NATO organization, and most of them presumably qualify for the NATO Medal.

Sources expect that if President Barack Obama approves a troop building for Afghanistan, many of those forces will be assigned to ISFA, further increasing eligibility for the medal.

The medal eligibility window for ISFA opened June 1, 2003, and has no firm closing date.

The medal eligibility window for service with the NATO Implementation Training Mission and NATO Training

Mission in Iraq opened Aug. 18, 2004 and also has no firm closing date.

Troops generally qualify for the award of the NATO Medal if they serve in the qualifying area of operations with a unit under NATO command or in support of NATO operations for 30 consecutive days of operation.

The NATO training mission in Iraq is closely aligned with the Multi-National Security Transition Command-Iraq.

The NATO Medal comes in two designs, each established in the 1990s to recognize service in either the former Yugoslavia or Kosovo. Both have a common disk and pendant, but with different ribbons for each operation.

U.S. troops can wear one NATO Medal. Second and subsequent awards are indicated by a bronze star placed on the disk suspension ribbon or service ribbon.

On the uniform, the medal will be displayed after the United Nations Medal and before the Multinational Force and Observers Medal.

The policy changes will be incorporated into upcoming revisions of applicable Dod manuals and directives.

While NATO was established in 1949, it was not until the end of the Cold War and peacekeeping missions in the former Yugoslavia during the 1990s that the U.S. government authorized its military members to accept and wear the NATO Medal.

NATO Medals are now authorized for the following operations and actions:

-- Operations in the former Yugoslavia: Deny Flight, Maritime Monitor, Maritime Guard and Sharp Guard, July 1, 1992, through Oct. 12, 1998.

-- Operations related to Kosovo: Allied Force, Joint Guardian, Allied Harbor, Sustain/Shining Hope and Nobel Anvil, Oct. 13, 1998, to a date to be determined.

-- Operation Eagle Assist: defense of U.S. and North American airspace following the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks on New York and Washington, Oct. 12, 2001-May 16, 2002.

-- Operation Active Endeavor: counterterrorist naval activities in the Mediterranean, Oct. 26, 2001, to a date to be determined.

-- Service in the Balkans: operations in the boundaries and airspace of Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, the former Republic of Yugoslavia (including Kosovo and Macedonia and Albania), Jan. 1, 2003, to a date to be determined.

-- International Security Force Afghanistan: NATO activities within the IAF operations plan, June 1, 2003, to a date to be determined.

-- NATO Training Implementation Mission in Iraq, Aug. 18, 2004, to a date to be determined.

-- NATO Training Mission in Iraq: Aug. 18, 2004, to a date to be determined.

4th OF JULY PARADE

COMMANDANT'S COLUMN

Marines,

Our Memorial Day fund-raising weekend was successful again this year especially in view of the economy. Our A-Day parking fund-raiser struggled again this year, but it did help defray some of the costs of the Memorial Day fund-raiser. I think if we can get cooperation from the Bank and Fountain Head to use their parking lots across the street from the College we could do much more with the A-Day event. As always, I'd like to say "Thank You" to all who came out to help make these fund raisers possible.

The Annual Doylestown Memorial Day Parade--which was the 143rd--again sponsored by the United Veterans of Doylestown, was a huge success and was bigger than last year. We had 80 units participate this year which was about 10 more than was anticipated. The cemetery Veterans Honor Ceremony was very well received and by all accounts the best that's been done to date. Thanks to our Senior Vice Commandant Jim McComb on again doing a stellar job.

Jim McComb was also nominated for Department of Pennsylvania Marine of the Year by our detachment. The vote by the membership present was unanimous. The paperwork will be delivered to the Marine of the Year Society at the convention for consideration.

We sold 1,212 Department Youth and Veterans tickets and they will be delivered to the convention. We increased our tickets by 64% over last year and we have Marine Ken Murray to thank as he sold almost 750 tickets by himself. I'd like to give special thanks to Ken and Junior Vice Commandant Ben Jones for their outstanding efforts to help the Detachment.

We have a few things coming up. First is the Independence Day parade in Chalfont. Everyone should meet at the Town Center on 202 South in New Britain at 0830 on the 4th of July. If you need further information please contact Chaplain Budd Pearce.

That's it for now, enjoy your summer.

FOURTH OF JULY: The Initial Costs of Freedom

Have you ever wondered what happened to the 56 men who signed the Declaration of Independence?

Five signers were captured by the British as traitors, and tortured before they died.

Twelve had their homes ransacked and burned.

Two lost their sons serving in the Revolutionary Army; another had two sons captured.

Nine of the 56 fought and died from wounds or hardships of the Revolutionary War.

They signed and they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor.

What kind of men were they?

Twenty-four were lawyers and jurists.

Eleven were merchants, nine were farmers and large plantation owners; men of means, well educated, but they signed the Declaration of Independence knowing full well that the penalty would be death if they were captured.

Carter Braxton of Virginia, a wealthy planter and trader, saw his ships swept from the seas by the British Navy. He sold his home and properties to pay his debts, and died in rags.

Thomas McKean was so hounded by the British that he was forced to move his family almost constantly.

He served in the Congress without pay, and his family was kept in hiding. His possessions were taken from him, and poverty was his reward.

Vandals or soldiers looted the properties of Dillery, Hall, Clymer, Walton, Gwinnett, Heyward, Rutledge, and Middleton.

At the battle of Yorktown, Thomas

Nelson, Jr., noted that the British General Cornwallis had taken over the Nelson home for his headquarters. He quietly urged General George Washington to open fire. The home was destroyed, and Nelson died bankrupt.

Francis Lewis had his home and properties destroyed. The enemy jailed his wife, and she died within a few months.

John Hart was driven from his wife's bedside as she was dying. Their 13 children fled for their lives. His fields and his gristmill were laid to waste. For more than a year he lived in forests and caves, returning home to find his wife dead and his children vanished.

Some of us take these liberties so much for granted, but we shouldn't.

So, take a few minutes while enjoying your 4th of July holiday and silently thank these patriots. It's not much to ask for the price they paid.

Remember: freedom is never free!

It's time we get the word out that patriotism is NOT a sin, and the Fourth of July has more to it than beer, picnics, and baseball games

PURPOSE OF THE MARINE CORPS LEAGUE

To preserve the traditions, promote the interest, and perpetuate the history of the United States Marine Corps and, by fitting acts, to observe the anniversaries of historical occasions of particular interest to Marines.

To band those who are now serving in the United States Marine Corps and those who have been honorably discharged from that Service together in fellowship, that they may effectively promote the ideals of American freedom and democracy.

To hold sacred the memory and the history of men and women who have given their lives to the nation.

To foster love for the principles that they have supported by blood and valor since the founding of the Republic.

To maintain true allegiance to American institutions.

To aid voluntarily and to render assistance to all Marines, uniformed and civilian, as well as to their surviving spouses and orphans.

League members know a special bond of comradeship unique to those who have worn the Marine Emblem. The members look after one another. They observe national holidays such as Memorial Day and Veterans Day and days of special interest to Marines such as the Marine Corps birthday, the anniversary of the flag raising at Iwo Jima and the day the Fourth Marine Brigade entered Belleau Wood.

The League performs some of its most important service on the local level through programs of benefit to the communities.

Many detachments recognizing a need, embark on special programs to help advance their towns and cities.
